

35

36

To the Directors and Subscribers to the Aberdeen Dispensary

MY LORD PROVOST AND GENTLEMEN,

I beg leave to offer my Dispensary, rendered vacant by the d

In doing so, I would respectfully for maturing my medical training and After graduating in 1865 with h pointed Demonstrator of Anatomy in years, and which I have recently res general practice.

As Pathologist to the Royal Infir of carefully examining into the natu the Hospital, and have thus obtained valuable service to me in the diagnosi

In addition to the ordinary expe the advantage of studying abroad for of the sick in the large Continental H

In the late Franco-German War months of September and October of joint-charge with another medical man sary.

self as a Candidate for the Medical Appointment at the death of Dr. Robert Smith.

submit to your notice the several advantages I have had experience.

highest honours both in Medicine and Surgery, I was ap-the University here, an office which I have held for five igned in order to allow me greater freedom to engage in mary for the last three years, I have had the opportunity re of the diseases in most of the fatal cases occurring in l a knowledge of morbid processes which would be of s and treatment of disease.

rience I have derived from private practice, I have had about a year and a half—the treatment and management ospitals of France and Germany.

, in which I had an opportunity of serving during the last year, I was entrusted with the Chief Surgeonship, in n, in the Hospital of the Uhlanen Caserne, Saarbrücken,